

Jon D. Doolittle

Biography

Jon was born and raised in Albany, and graduated from Albany R-III High School in 1993. Presently, he is the President and CEO-elect of Northwest Medical Center, a 25-bed critical access hospital located in Albany, Missouri. Prior to joining Northwest Medical Center, Jon completed eleven years in the healthcare industry with Kansas City-based Cerner Corporation before completing an Administrative Fellowship with Heartland Health in St. Joseph.

Jon graduated Cum Laude from Harvard University with his Artium Baccalaureatus in Government. He is a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives and of the Healthcare Financial Management Association.

Jon and his wife Jenifer are active youth volunteers who recently were awarded Bishop Robert Finn's Volunteer Service Award, which recognizes outstanding leaders throughout the Catholic Diocese of Kansas City - St. Joseph.

In addition to his work with his church, Doolittle is an Eagle Scout and a member of the Executive Board of the Pony Express Council, Boy Scouts of America.